December 2, 2020: Erie, Pennsylvania's 2nd Annual Harry T. Burleigh Day is part of a week-long celebration of the Burleigh Legacy Alliance's Heritage@Home program that highlights African American contributions to NWPA history fostering a healthy, inclusive community identity in a proactive demonstration of artful resilience during the COVID-19 pandemic.

This year's events are offered through broadcast and digital media in lieu of congregant settings with online learning tools for arts and humanities education. Heritage@Home program partners for H. T. Burleigh Week 2020 programs include WQLN TV and Radio, the Erie County Public Library, the City of Erie, the Erie Downtown Partnership's Downtown D'Lights, and the Northwest Tri-County Intermediate IU5.

The Burleigh Legacy Alliance thankfully acknowledges the generous support of The Erie Community Foundation's Helping Today Grant award, the Deep River Fund, Erie Gives contributors, and program sponsors.
