Third Annual
Burleigh Week
Lawrence-Johnson
Preservation
Project

December 2, 2021: Erie, Pennsylvania's Third Annual Harry T. Burleigh Day is part of a week-long celebration of the Burleigh Legacy Alliance's Heritage@Home program that highlights African American contributions to NWPA history fostering a healthy, inclusive community identity. The Lawrence-Johnson Preservation Project begins its first phase and look for updates on our website.

We are happy to offer this year's events through a combination of in-person and virtual events with online learning tools for arts and humanities education. Heritage@Home program partners for Harry T. Burleigh Week 2021 programs include WQLN TV and Radio, the Erie County Public Library, the City of Erie, the Erie Downtown Partnership's Downtown D'Lights, the Northwest Tri-County Intermediate IU5, and the Music Department at Tennessee State University.

The Burleigh Legacy Alliance thankfully acknowledges the generous support of The Erie Community Foundation's Helping Today Grant award, the Deep River Fund, Erie Gives contributors, and program sponsors.
